

Pay Stubs

- A pay stub is a paper that tell you:
- How much you worked during a time period
 - How much money you earned during that time period
 - What deductions have been made
 - How much money you're actually taking home with you for that period

Examples

1. Here is a paystub for a Costume Designer for a TV show.

- "Gross Pay" is called something different here. What is it?
- What Percent of their Gross Pay was deducted?
- Why is there an "employer" contribution listed for CPP and EI?
- How many deductions are listed, in total?
- At the bottom, it lists "TD-1 Federal" and "TD-1 Provincial". What are these?
